

RETHINKING RETIREMENT LIVING

1. ARE YOU READY?

Maybe you have considered simplifying your life and wondered if moving to a retirement community might be the answer. Yet, despite all of the attractive services and amenities that retirement communities offer, a little voice keeps saying, “I’m not ready yet.”

You are not alone. Most people begin exploring retirement communities with just that thought in mind. Yet those who ultimately make the decision to move to a retirement community almost always exclaim, “I wish I hadn’t waited so long!”

2. COMPARE THE VALUE

You may be surprised to learn that, at a cost that is comparable to what you spend now to live in your home, you can move to The Oceanview Retirement Village and enjoy maintenance-free living and other desirable benefits.

Many older adults choose The Oceanview for its outstanding services and amenities and its exceptional value.

3. PLANNING A SMART MOVE

While moving to a new residence may seem like an overwhelming task, good organization and the right support services can make it an enjoyable, worry-free experience.
